DEDICATED TO MY FRIEND, R. HOULDSWORTH, ESQ. Do not the flowers, when sleeping on the earth, Bright diadems that nature's brow adorn, When the soft winds from out their cells stea forth, Revive hencath the kisses of the morn? Do they not ope their dew-bespangled eyes, And binsh in beauty forth, beneath the sunlit

And does not man, when in the stariess night Of sorrow lying, when his human sky Is dark and drear, revive beneath thy light, Driving away the clouds that round him lie And doth he not take comfort 'neath thy ray, That breaks his spirit's gloom, and drives his Angelic Hope! best boon to mortals given! Cheerer of life, and comforter of wo, If thy protecting stay were from us riven How could we bear the ills we meet below Should we not perish on life's stormy sea, And sink beneath the surging waves of misery?

What cheers the mourner bouding o'er the And dropping o'er the grave his bitter tears;

The captive, pining in his dungeon gloom, The pale-eyed student, full of doubts

The wanderer, in distant lands afar; Who sighs for home like lovers for the evening star;

The sallor, on the tempest-riven ocean, When death, in horrid shapes, doth hover

Howling their dirges in his frighted ear? 'Tis thoo, sweet Hope, that cheers their sad Lighting their gloom, tho' darkest ills around

And those that in death's cold clusp are lying Confess thy power, and ope their dying eyes On these dear ones who round their couch are

And point to blessed realms beyond the skies; For thou dost breathe sweet words within their

That drive away despair, whisp'ring that Heaven is mear! April 5th, 1849.

A Caravan of Pilgrims to Mecca-Scene in number, and they alone might have made head against a numerous body of assailants, at least while as yet fatigue and want of another camel, bearing a square wooden the wilderness, to form a fellowship in the year of fast-waning Islam. depth. In the front was the cannon, used (Lane,) and the route is, for the most part, his face. He was rapidly rising in acquirefor announcing the time for halting and desert, "The soute of the Egyptian cara- ments and virtues when, in an evil hour, starting again, on a sort of sledge, drawn van is far more dangerous and fatiguing than his stable was newly painted. He observed by three camels, harnessed in a peculiar that of the Syrian; the road along the shore the workmen closely, saw that they were manner, and each with a soldier on his of the Red Sea leading through the territo- careful of the paint, and immediately burnback. Next, in the centre, succeeded a ries of wild and warlike tribes of Bedouins, ed to possess it. On their going to dinner, long line of camels, bearing palanquins, or who frequently endeavor to cut off a part he ate up all they had left behind, consisthodags, occupied by women, a sort of tent of the carevan by open force." The caring of a pound or two of white lead, and either built up on the back of a single aniavan travels slowly but steadily; the time this youthful indiscretion terminated in mal, or slung, like a sedan-chair, between for halting and departing being marked by death. While I was yet inconsolable for two of them, and varying in the splendor of the sound of the cannon. Komeh, who his loss another friend of mine in Yorkits materials, and gaudiness of its decora. was himself a Hadji, had contrived, in a shire discovered an older and more gifted tions, with the rank of its fair occupant; rough way, to furnish me with an account raven at a village public-house, which he some being quite radiant with crimson or of the details and privations of his pilgrim. green silk, embroidered in gold, surmount- age, some of which were painful enough: a consideration, and sent it up to me. The ed with glittering crescents, and having they agreed exactly with Mr. Lane's ac- first act of this Sage was, to administer to small windows, latticed without and lined count. "It is not merely by the visit to the effects of his predecessor, by disinterwithin with looking-glass. Most of these, Mecca, and the performance of the cere-ring all the cheese and halfpence he had on account of the heat, were thrown open, and admitted occasional peeps at the languid sleepy eyes within. To some of the round, and other rites in the Holy City, the energies of his mind. When he had tenants of these hodags Burckhardt gives that the Moslim acquires the title of "El. achieved this task, he applied himself to the indeed, but an equivocal character: __ il hagg," (or the pilgrim:) the final object of acquisition of stable language, in which he dram, and a denser crowd, now indicated Isaac, who was to have been sacrificed. can forget, nor the extraordinary gallantry the approach of the central and most im. "Generally towards the end of Safar, with which refusing to be househed

Mahmal, or camel selected to carry, under reaches Cairo, sending in advance an offi. overpowered by numbers. It may have been a costly canopy, the copy of the Koran cer, accompanied by two Arabs, on fleet that he was too bright a genius to live long. sent to Merca. We came to a halt, to ob- dromedaries, to announce its speedy arrival, or it may have been that he took some perserve it with more attention while passing; and to carry packets of letters to the relaand if this singular spectacle arrested our tives of pilgrims, for which he is handsome- into his maw,-which is not improbable, notice, the pilgrims, on their part, appeared by rewarded. Some then advance with seeing that he new-pointed the greater part no less surprised at the apparition of a sol. provisions and even music to meet their jaitary traveler in a Frank dress, coming ded friends. It is very affecting to see, at tar, broke countless squares of glass by no less surprised at the apparition of a sol. provisions and even music to meet their ja- of the garden wall by digging out the moracross the Desert in the opposite direction. the approach of the caravan, the numerous scraping away the putty all round the who, though a mere boy, from his quickness Many were the questions put to Komeh, parties who go out with drums and pipes, frames, and tore up and swallowed, in and intelligence was most useful to his who, to my renewed surprise, seemed here to welcome and escort to the city their as well as everywhere else, to know almost friends arrived from the holy places; and everybody; and many were the salutations how many who went forth in hope, return dent, did not regard me with quite so favor. joicing! for the arduous journey through able an eye, their welcome varying proba- the desert is fatal to a great number of pilable an eye, their welcome varying propably, according to the laxity or ardor of grims who cannot afford themselves neceswith a sepulchral cry of "Cuckoo!"— of his merchandise; and when thus bring and soon the impending storm burst upon they got into the carriage that was to contheir Musselman tanaticism. In this mix. sary conveniences. Many of the worker parents, and made out, he used to steal into his little room to the counsellors and favorities of the new who go forth to meet their husbands or sons, face to the New Edition of Barnaby out, he used to steal into his little room to the counsellors and favorities of the new who go forth to meet their husbands or sons, face to the New Edition of Barnaby motive impelling to the performance of pil- ing fallen victims to privation and fatigue. difficulty in grouping the host according to the air as they retrace their steps to the city, naticism which was strongly stamped on which the clouds of Saracens hovered of to drive him almost frantic, and no sooner which proportions to the number of these who fall victims to these remorseless ene- situation where he can be approached; but pious journeys he has performed the min- mies of civilised man, with whom success- one day in this month I was out for a quiet gled amount of rascality and fanaticism ful robbery is an honorable trade of such walk with my retriever, looking at wide acquired by the pilgrim. Sallow-faced der. ancient standing. All was evidently hurry drains and small pools for wild ducks, when vishes abounded: these, says Burckhardt, and alarm in their minor detachments. "of every sect and order in the Turkish Reaching now a bold hillock of sand, ground, in so eager a manner that I knew empire, are found among the pilgrims, occupied by a party of well-dressed Turks, nothing but a fox or an otter could have many of them madmen, or at least assum. who politely invited me to take coffee with been the cause of his excitement; and ing the appearance of insanity, which cau. them, I ascended it to take a farewell soon found in a nearly dry open drain the ses them to be much respected by the view of the caravan. I had been delighted quite recent track of a very large otter .hadjys, and fills their pockets with money. with every detail of the singular proces- For a long time he would not show himself, The behavior of some of them is so violent, sion, and would not have missed seeing it till suddenly the dog rushed into a thick ju the caravan, which was coming on at a willingly something to escape from them," transporting the beholder back to the very deep black pool. The otter escaped from The Mahmal, borne on the back of a earliest historic times, and even into the the dog in the water; but the hole being ally hovering on its flanks, but sometimes fine camel, selected for the purpose, and clouds of tradition and fable that precede only about six feet square, though deep, much in advance. First came a body of exempted for the rest of its life from ordi. it, for there can be no doubt that this mode took my retriever out by main force, and stragglers, who seemed as if they had been nary labor; consists of a square wooden of travel was practised from a period long waited for the water to become clear again. suddenly wasted from the suburbs of Cairo, frame, terminating in a pyramidal form, lost in obscurity, that it would naturally be When it did so, I looked for the otter for without note or preparation; a large propor. covered with dark brocade, and highly-orna- resorted to in these regions in the very in- some time in vain, till at last, having stooption of them were tattered ragamuffins of mented with gilt fringes and tassels. Mr. fancy of the world, and that the organisa. ed down close to the pool, I was startled by the lowest aspect, the very offscouring of Lane states that in every cover he has seen tion of these migratory hosts must, besides, seeing his face within a few inches of my the capital, and, to all appearance, utterly was worked a view of the Temple of Mecca, ever have been nearly the same. My own, his body being almost concealed by unfurnished for the journey-some plodding and over it the Sultan's cypher, but these thoughts went back to the time of Joseph the overhanging bank. I tried to make him on foot, others mounted on donkeys; women particulars escaped my notice. According and the Patriarchs, to the days of wealthy leave his cover, but in vain; so I sent the even bearing their children on their shoulders, the asses which carried them having perished; a painfully grotesque assemblage, it contains nothing, besides perished; a painfully grotesque assemblage, it contains nothing, besides and there the battle began again. The dog. for it was past all question, that of these two mus-hafs, or copies of the Koran, one vast interior of Asia, all indebted for their and there the battle began again. The dog, room and hastens to the palace. He is banks. miserable wretches too many most fall vic-tims to fatigue and privation during their on a scroll, and the other in the usual splendor to the patient camel, the ship of although unable to master the otter, who form of a little book, and each enclosed in the desert, so wonderfully adapted by an was one of the largest size, managed to lengthened course. In their total want of a case of gilt silver, attached externally at omniscient Providence for ministering to prevent his escape, and at last I contrived preparation, their ignorance of the way and the top. It was related that the Sulten En. the wants of the Eastern world, both in its to end the contest by a well-applied blow blind reliance on the providence of Allah, Zahir Beybars, King of Egypt, was the first earliest and advanced stages, equally need. from a piece of railing which I had picked they strongly reminded me of the descrip- who sent a Mahmai with the caravan of ful to the migratory camp of Bedouin wan. up .- St. John's Field Notes for 1846. tion of those fanatic horder who went forth pilgrims to Mecca, in the year of the derers, and for the requirements of the luxon the first crusade, and who perished by Flight, 670, (A.D. 1272,) or 675; but this urious trading cities of Egypt and Syria, thousands long ere they reached the borders custom, it is generally said, has its origin which have for ages dispensed the riches of Suez is a desert without its only redeemof Palestine. They inquired for Akaba, as a few years before his accession to the the East throughout the western world ing quality of freedom. A mouldering wall those were accustomed to ask for Jerusalem, throne. Sheger ed Durr, (commonly call- Those cities and their commerce have pass. encircles it, except where open to the sea; supposing it always just at hand; and were ed Shegeret ed Durr.) a beautiful Turkish ed away, but the same mode of travel still within are several void spaces, differing in astounded when we told them they had slave, who became the favorite wife of the subsists, and ever must, throughout these no respect from the expanse without, save nearly three days' journey to accomplish .- Sultan Es-Saleh Negen-ed-Deen, and on extensive regions of the world, to which it that they are noisome with an accumulation Strongly contrasted with this deplorable the death of his son, (with whom terminal is exclusively suitable. The long procest of filth, and save also that they are border rabble came spurring forward detached ted the dynasty of the house of Eiyoob) sion, with its face set towards distant Mecca, ed by large dreary heaps of dingy-colored groups of completely appointed Caireen caused herself to be acknowledged as defiled slowly away, the most advanced por. houses, which seem about to fall in and gentlemen, well mounted, well dressed, all their garments being fresh and glossy, armed in a magnificent "hodag," or covered litter, where we had first encountered it. I could tree or shrub, or a drop of fresh water, and to the teeth, and followed at a distance by borne by a camel; and for several succes- not but follow it in imagination to its des- all supplies fetched from a distance, even well-laden camels, bearing comfortable sive years her empty hodag was sent with tined bourne, through the many perils which from Cairo. Scattered about are encamptents and abundant stores. Some of them, proud of their own gallant appearance and the spirit of their horses, pranced and cur.

the caravan, merely for the sake of state.—
Hence succeeding princes of Egypt sent of the great desert, the fearful Simoom, the spirit of their horses, pranced and cur.

with each year's caravan of pilgrims a terrible destitution of water, and often of half-menacing appearance disposes one to vetted, and performed different feats of kind of hodag, (which received the name necessary food, under which many, at least give them a wide berth. This dead and horsemenship within sight of the hodags of "Mahamal," or "Mahamil,") as an em-which bore their ladyloves, throwing the blem of royalty; and the kings of other must sink. I thought, too, of the fate which which one is a stranger in the desert, and dust without much ceremony into the eyes countries followed their example. The even now, might be hovering over the gay. made me hurry back to my tent, after a of the poorer waylarers. Of these well. Wahhabees prohibited the Mahmal, as an est and best furnished of these splendid pa. very short walk through the bazaar, and to armed men there was in all a considerable object of vain pomp: it afforded them one vitions, whose delicate tenants, unequal to the muddy beach, along which are scatter.

water had not reduced the strength and con- seat, fenced with boards, in which was seat- grave with the broken-down straggler, tant mountains towards Sinai, into whose dition of the horse and the spirit of the rider, and perfectly naked to the waist, swaying left behind to perish, to dig with his expir. in the olden time. Relying on the fleetness to and fro, broiling and blackening in the ing strength his own shallow grave in the of their horses for enabling them to over. fierce sunbeams, This singular being is sand, and await the passing of the angel of take the main body, several parties were called the "Sheik of the Camel," and re death .- Forty Days in the Desert. halting on sandy knolls at some distance, ceives from Government two camels and each planting a lance in the sand as a ral- his provisions; he is probably the same in-addressed to myself, though all, it was evi- with lamentation instead of music and re- and died before the kitchen fire. He kept their Mussulman fanaticism. In this mix. sary conveniences. Many of the women various were the shades of character and receive the melancholy tidings of their hav. Rudge. grimage; and there would have been little The piercing shrieks with which they rend the indications afforded by their respective are often heard predominant over the noise powerful and severe biter, closing its jaws appearance. The comfortable, nay, luxu- of the drum and the shrill notes of the with the strength of a vice on whatever it rious style of many showed forth rather the hautboy which proclaim the joy of others." seizes. Every courageous dog who has man of rank or wealthy merchant, with We had now seen the best of the appa- once battled with an otter, retains ever afwhom the formal sense of the fulfilment of rently interminable procession, for other terwards the most eager and violent ania pious duty, which adds further considera- bodies continued to advance at a distance mosity against the animal. The scent of an tion to that of wealth, or the dissipation of latter the main track, having fallen behind otter renders my otherwise most tractable ennui, or an eye to profitable traffic, were for want of proper and ready organization, retriever quite uncontrollable. The rememmotives largely qualifying the religious fa- which may well account for the manner in brance of former bites and wounds seems while buying cakes from him, to chat and splender which Menzikoff had been between his outward and his inward exact the scowling visages of many of the more old about the crusaders, surrounding and does he come across the fresh track of one and quick repartees. poorly provided. Some of these, from their cutting off separate detachments from the than he immediately throws aside all congreen turbans, had evidently gone on the main body, as the hostile Bedouins of the trol, and is off ventre a terre in pursuit. It pilgrimage before, and their general mien great desert are also at times accustomed to is not often that an otter commits himself so bore out the well-known Eastern saying, do; and wo be to the luckless wretches far as to be found during the daytime in any

the struggle with protracted fatigue, must ed some singular vessels, built high at the lying post, smoking and sipping coffee, and dividual described by Mr. Lane, as having The raven in this story is a compound of Jericho fall down, were only ram's horns; overheard, sufficient proof of the truth of solution. But his cup of sorrow was not effectually from all taint of rancially but makes making a nountide repast. The expense for several years accompanied the caravan two great originals, of whom I have been, the psaltery, was a small triangular harp Menzikoff's report, and he suddenly entered yet full; his three children were attacked it also look better, and taste sweeter richer and the suddenly entered yet full; formerly incurred by some of the richer to and from Mecca. This old man, in at different times, the proud possessor. The or lyre with wire strings, and struck with the room. The conspirators, supposing at the same time by the small-pox. His per cared with common sail class of pilgrams seems almost incredible:

Burckhardt tells us that "in 1816, several Burckhardt tells us that "in 1816, several Burckhardt tells us that "in 1816, several bled the zagg used at Malta in the present knees before him, imploring pardon at the line same time son and one of his daughters recovered; but was discovered in a modest retirement in bled the zagg used at Malta in the present knees before him, imploring pardon at the grandees of Cairo joined the Haj, one of saluted us very courteously. In addition London, by a friend of mine, and given to day,—a species of bagpipe; the timbrel was very moment that his life was in their the Czar, fell a victim to the fearful disor-salt, (or rock salt,) two parts. Beat the whole salt, (or rock salt,) two parts. whom had one hundred and ten camels for to this original, the Mahmal was, a few me. He had from the first, as Sir Hugh a tambourine, and the dulcimer a horizon- hands. the transport of his baggage and retinue, years ago, followed by another, and still Evans says of Anne Page, "good gifts," tal herp, with wire strings, and struck with From that day might be dated the briland eight tents; his traveling expenses in more singular one; an old woman, with head which he improved by study in a most ex. a stick like the psaltery—such as are seen liant fortunes of the young Menzikoff. grief on the 2d of November, 1729, tinues: going and coming must have amounted to the streets of London in the present ten thousand pounds." But such zeal and the streets of London in the present ten thousand pounds." But such zeal and so terrified a day. Imagine the discord produced by study in a most ex. a suck fixe the partery study in a most ex. a suck fixe the parte wealth are getting rarer and rarer every year of fast-waning Islam.

The main body of the caravan advanced The journey from Cairo to Mecca is long and a little more liberty was now alsteadily in a compact mass, five camels in and arduous, and occupies thirty-seven days, molested with the dog's dinner from before Times. "Never give up!" It can last but a season. indeed, but an equivocal character:—"!

saw with them," he says, "a party of public women and dancing-girls, whose tents and equipage were among the most splendid in the caravan." The camels bearing these aristocratic and, as it might be, other ladies, were also fantastically decorated, and were led by well-dressed grooms. In one of the most sumptuoes carriages to be found in the group reclined the Emir-el-Haj, who bears rule over the caravan. The same form of conveyance, but in ruder style, was described to form of conveyance, but in ruder style, was descri who bears rule over the ceravan. The same form of conveyance, but in ruder style, was adopted by many of the poorer class of the middle of the husband himself was the conductor of his migratory household. Camels in a double him either side of the middle file, accompanied by their attendant drivers.

A burst of tom toms, a rude sort of Arab drum, and a denser crowd, now indicated spiraters, the greater part of a wooden stair and he might be seen in every quarter of to place his power on a solid basis proved first joy was soon mingled and tempered and tempered to place his power on a solid basis proved first joy was soon mingled and tempered some three years, he, too, was taken ill, the city with a basket, which he was often fruitless; the sudden death of Catharine I., with pensive regret. It was with even his eye to the last upon the meat as it roasted, and suddenly turned over on his back with a sepulchral cry of "Cuckoo! — or his merchandise, and was to come Since then I have been ravenless.—Pre- ing home again part of what he had carried his head. The Dolgorouki family were vey them to Moscow, after having paid a last

The Dog and the Otter.

Even when young the otter is a most suddenly the dog went off, nose to the and at the same time so cunning, that even on any account. It is a truly oriental spec- niper bush, and the next moment dog and the least charitably disposed hadiys gave tacle, the most characteristic that exists, otter were tumbling over each other into a ## (Erom Hogg's Instructor.) Never give Up!

Never give up!" 'Tis the secret of glory; Nothing so wise can philosophy preach.
Think of the names that are famous in story; "Never give up" is the lesson they teach. How have men compass'd immortal achieve-

How have they moulded the world to their 'Tis that 'midst dangers, and woes, and bereave-

"Never give up" was the principle still.

Shake not the yoke-'twill more bitterly gall; 'Never give up!" for there cometh a morrow life's a rough passage to realms of amenity; Dark is the journey, but travel we must.

way. Basely surrender your manhood and reason.

they think themselves lucky to get the dinner.-Longfellow's Kavanagh.

[From Chambers's Edinburgh Journal.] The Menzikoff Family.

Close to the Kremlin at Moscow was to he seen, about the end of the seventeenth through the same influence a marriage was put into her hands that restored them to century; the shop of a pastry-cook of the also agreed upon, between the sen of the liberty and to their country, that she could name of Menzikoff, famous for making a latter and the Princess Anna. Both couples be persuaded that she was not the sport of kind of honey-cake in great request among were betrothed; and Menzikoff, left illusion. father. It was his business to sell cakes; bial inconstancy of fortune. All his efforts father, of all they had suffered; and the city with a baset, which three or four which took place two years after that of dimmed with the tears of memory that she times in the day. On some occasions, her husband, entirely changed the aspect met her brother's glance beaming with however, he was unsuccessful in disposing of affairs. Peter II. ascended the throne, hope, as on the day fixed for their department. avoid meeting his father, who in such case anonarch, and they had long been the ene over to Dolgorouki their Isba and all that would fly into a passion, and send him to mies of Menzikoff. They excited in the a contained. The Czarina received them bed supperless, and perhaps, in addition to Czar's mind a jealousy of the power of his most graciously, and gave to Menzikoff the this punishment, beat him severely. And intended father-in-law, and succeeded not place of captain of her guard, and that at never was chastisement more unjust; for only in breaking off the projected mar- tire-woman to his sister. Soon after the Alexander did his very best to sell his riages, but in procuring the banishment of richly endowed her, on the occasion of her cakes, repairing to the most public walks, Menzikoff to his estate of Reuneburg, about marriage with one of the most powerful and the doors of the principal churches, 250 leagues from Moscow. But their ha nobles of her court. traversing the streets and the thoroufares, tred was not yet satisfied; his wealth alone till at length he was well known to all the gave him formidable power; he might reinhabitants of Moscow—nay even to the care in the most odous light the pomp a school-master. This profuced a discord with him, and laugh at his lively sallies imprudent enough to display in the removal ence. Life presented itself to him like Brought thus into contact with princess of the unhappy man was irrevocably sealed. real and the ideal. To the solution of the and nobles, the sight of the luxury and At some distance from Moscow a detach. dark problem he devoted his days and magnificence that surrounded them soon ment of soldiers, commanded by one of his his nights. He was forced to teach grown inspired the young Menzikoff with a disgust of his trade sufficiently strong to make cree was shown to Menzikoff condemning ems; and from day to day, and from year him long to throw aside his basket, and bid him for the rest of his life to Siberia, stripped to year, the trivial things of life postponed adieu forever to his cakes. But his aspira- of all honors and wealth. He was made the great designs, which he felt capable of tions had scarcely taken the form of hope, to alight from his carriage, and after he and accomplishing, but never had the res line so vague were they, and so little probabili- his wife and children had been compelled courage to begin. Thus he dallied girl ty did there appear of any change of con to put on the coarse garb of peasants, they his thoughts and with all things, and waste dition. Little did he imagine that fortune were placed in the covered carts which his strength on trifles; like the large see was even then about to take him by the were to convey them to their place of exile. that plays with the pebbles on its beach hand, to raise him to the highest pinnacle. Who can paint the despair of the un-One day his father received an order for happy Menzikoff! A few short days before, lift great navies on its outstretched pains takes from a nobleman, who was giving he held the second rank in the State, under and toss them into the air as playthings an entertainment to several of the courtiers an Emperor whose throne his daughter was Longfellow's Kavanagh. of the Czar. Alexander was of course the to share; and now, stripped of his possesbearer of them. Admitted to the banquet sions, of liberty, of hope, he was borne up the Heliconian rivers with their backs whom had indulged in copious libations, place where he was henceforth to drag out turned, so as to see the landscape precise. and a greater number of whom were quite his miserable existence! As a favor, the intoxicated. To Alexander's astonishment, Emperor sent him to the circle of Ischim, in the midst of the jingle of glasses, and called the "Italy of Siberia," because a as Sancho Panza, with his eyes blinded the clamor of drunken riot, he hears threat few days of summer are known in it, the beheld from his wooden horse the earth no ening words against the Czar. A vast con- winter lasting only eight months; but larger than a grain of mustand seed, and inspiracy exists to expel him from the throne, that winter is intensely cold, though not as men and women on it, as large as have got up by the Princess Sophia, whose am- long as in other parts of the country. The bition could not be satisfied in the obscurity north wind is continually blowing, and of the convent in which her brother Peter comes charged with ice from the deserts of course of Time. We look for the bones obliged her to remain. The very next day the north pole; so that from the month of af our childhood, they are gone, for the surrounded on his arrival by the guards, to Junnediately on his arrival in Siberia whom he is well known.

here without your cakes?"

listening to your foolery."

you will repent it all your life."

you got to say so important?" have your life."

which he had been laboring for so many next. years, he found in Menzikoff a second self, able and willing to co-operate with him in the simple of the second self, able and willing to co-operate with him in the simple of the second self, and willing to co-operate with him in the simple of the second self.

twenty years of age. vated rank, now only second to that of the chim.

in mistress; she ordered her step son Peter, Fig wonder and joy, the young girl could whom she had named as her successor, to not believe that she heard aright; and it marry the daughter of Menzikoff; and was not ull she actually had the document forth secure from all reverses; but it was breathless, under a revulsion so mighty, so not long before he experienced the prover- sudden. Then came the thought of he of his family from Moscow; and the ruin the Sphinx, with its perpetual tiddle of the Menzikoff was put in possession of a liba "Good day Menzikoff; what brings you (the Russian name for the peasant's hovel.) As no saint can be canonised until the situated in a very remote district of the Devil's Advocate has exposed all his ex-"Talk not of cakes!" he answered, gloomy region, and there he was subjected to deeds, and showed why he should not be panting and breathless, and almost wild the strictest watch. He was forbidden, with made a saint, so no poet can take he see with terror; "I must see the Czar; I must his family, to pass beyond a certain pre- tion among the gods until the critics have speak to him, and that on the instant !" scribed limit, even to go to church. A said all that can be said against lain -"A mighty great man truly to speak to few days after their installation in their the Czar : he has other things to do besides wretched abode, some cows and sheep, and a quantity of fowls, were brought to Men. ic. When mingled, they make the most "In the name of all you love best, for the zikoff, without any intimation to whom he perfect musical drams. - 16 sake of great St. Nicholas, our patron saint, was indebted for this act of kindness. It rake me to the Czar; every moment lost was indeed an alleviation of his sad fate, may be the cause of frightful misfortunes. not only as an addition to his physical com-If you hinder me from seeing the Emperor, fort, but inspriring a cheering hope, by show-Surprised at his urgency, one of the and were interested in him. Perhaps their quietly interred, and ought to be turned as guards determined to go to the Emperer and zeal to serve him would not stop here.scertain his pleasure concerning him. Pe- This feeble ray of hope sufficed to cheer ter, always accessible to the meanest of the unhappy family, and impart to them is subjects, ordered Menzikoff to be ad- some degree of fortitude for the endurance mitted, "Well, Alexander, and what have of their misery; and Menzikoff steadily devoted himself to the cultivation of the "My lord," cried the boy throwing him- ground which was to be the support of be- This high salting necessarily delenes from self at the prince's feet, "your life is at ings so dear to his heart. But new trials quality, injures its ready sale, and reduced stake if you delay a single hour. Only a awaited him. The health of his beloved price. If we can medity this exceed en few paces from your palace they are conwife gave way under the sad reverse and by using more palatable substances, of cases and spring against you; they have sworn to appropriate of her particles of her particles, it will be an appropriate of her particles of her particles. spiring against you: they have sworn to unwonted privations of her new situation, ment. Chemista tell us that sugar is one and a short time after their arrival she died. these substances; and experience gives as the "I will not give them time," answered Menzikoff, in his despairing grief, would same information. Who Peter smiling. "Come, rise, and be my have soon followed her; but the thought with sugar, why may not butter be separated." guide. Remember only that you must be of his helpless children bade him live to be also? is a common sense inquiry. Experience as silent as the grave upon all you already their guide and stay. Religion now impart. has shown that it may. Dr. James Anderson know and all that may happen. Your fu- ed to his mind that elevation and fortitude the celebrated agriculturist, whose theatise "to ture fortune depend on your discretion." which it alone can give; he now knew the with Respect to the Making and Curing of Bar-With these words the Emperor wrapped fleeting nature, the nothingness of the riches ter," is still our highest and best suchasity The ancient Egyptian flute was only a himself in a cloak, and repaired alone to and honors of which a moment sufficed to the subject, found, from some year's true of cow's horn with three or four holes in it, the house where the conspirators were asand their harp or lyre had only three strings; sembled. A few minutes pause, at the nation to his fate, finding in prayer and in the lewish trumpets that made the walls of the company him in the world he the Jewish trumpets that made the walls of door of the room gave him, in the words he the affection of his family his sweetest conder. The unhappy father could not bear juto a fine powder, mix them well together.

> languages, and such skill in arms, and lowed to the two children; such as permis. Smooth the surface, and if you expect that a knowledge of state affairs, that he soon be- sion to go on Sundays to devine service at will be above a day or two before you can accompany to the surface. knowledge of state affairs, that he soon be- sion to go on Sundays to devine service at came necessary to the Czar, who never went the town of Isahim, a considerable distance more, cover it up close with a piece of close anywhere without him. When on his re- from their Isba; but they were not allowed turn from Holland, Peter wished to carry the gratification of being together—the been dipped in melted butter, that is exact out those plants of social amelioration at brother going one day and the sister the fitted to the edges of the vessel ail round able and willing to co-operate with him in in the situation of the young Menzikoffs; to be taken off, and the butter applied to all his projects. Such signal services soon but now events occurred that totally altered above the former, pressing it down and smooth obtained for him the government of Ingria, the aspect of affairs at the court of Russia. When it is quite full, but the two carees in the rank of prince, and in 1702 the title. Peter II died without in the court of Russia. the rank of prince, and in 1702 the title Peter II. died without issue, and Anna, the spread over it with the greatest care, and in of major general. He was then five and eldest daughter of Peter I., ascended the little meited butter be poured all roand throne. The solicitations of the friends of edges, so as to fill up every cranny, and effects War having been declared against Po. the unhappy family found a ready response ally exclude the air. A little salt may be then and, Menzikoff signalized himself in say from the cover be firmly land, Menzikoff signalized himself in sev. from the compassion she herself felt for fixed down, to remain close shut till it be open eral battles, and attained to the highest them, and an edict soon received her signa- for use. If all this be carefully done, the butter offices. But was he happy? No: the per. ture, recalling the young Menzikoff and may be kept perfectly sound in this climate in may be kept perfectly sound in this climate in many years I cannot sell the many years I can petual fears of a reverse that haunted him, his sister from banishment, and permitting the was an object of their return to Message. The many years I caused the consciousness that he was an object of their return to Message. the consciousness that he was an object of their return to Moscow. The young crea. respect as sweet and sound as when it was as jealousy and envy to all who surrounded tures, far from expecting such a change, a month old him, robbed him of anything like tranquili. passed their days in cultivating their farm, two f mind. Every thought was absorbed and alternately applied them the manner does not taste well till in his manner does not taste well till in this manner does not taste well till in the Will you, because a cloud bursts on your ty of mind. Every thought was absorbed and alternately availing themselves of their stood at least a fortnight after being salled in in the unceasing effort to maintain his ele- weekly privilege of going to church at Is- after that period is elapsed, it calls with a rich emperor himself. But he was even now One day, when the young girl was reill; he might die: what, then, would become turning as usual alone, as she was passing cured with common sait only, would not the of the favorite Menzikoff? Would his a cabin, a man put his head out of the lit. gine it had got one fourth part of the sell that successor extend to him the same counten.

ance? This thought pressed upon him per.

ber by name, and then made himself known petually, induced him to try and find out as Dolycouki, the enemy of her father the petually, induced him to try and find out as Dolgorouki, the enemy of her father, the tions. The composition mentioned is, we have from the emperor what his intentions were author of all the misfortunes of her family, anderstood, much used in Goshen, Orange co as to the succession to the throne; but the now in his turn a victim to court intrigues. prince was so much offended by the attempt, which he had too much penetration brother of this fresh instance of the instanot to perceive, that, as a punishment, he deprived him of the principality of Pleskoff.

Menzikoff was fully aware that his fate was bound up with that of the Fernanda and brother of this Iresh instance of the instathe country as the ground alum is the the ground alum Catherine, over whose mind he had always had great influence, and in concert with her he gained over all parties to favor her succession to the throne after the description of the concert whose mind he had always had great influence, and in concert with her he gained over all parties to favor her succession to the throne after the description of the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the throne after the description of the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the throne after the description of the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther, when her brother rap out to the concert with her farther the concert with her he gained over all parties to favor her succession to the throne after the demise of her husband. No sooner were Peter's eyes closed in death, than Menzikoff seized on the treasury and citadel, and proclaimed Catherine Empress under the name of the Catherine Empress under the name there are two passes in the treatment that there are two passes in the treatment that the catherine the catherine the catherine the name the of the catherine the name that the catherine the catherine the catherine the catherine the name that the catherine closed in death, than Menzikoff seized on the treasury and citadel, and proclaimed Catherine Empress under the name of the Czarina Anna recalling us to court, and always larger ones. A fast

Mr. Churchill.-Nature had made had been pitched in the sandy bed of the ## AGRICULTURAL.

put to every sixteen ounces of butter; max the loss of time, down into the vessel prepare! receive it, pressing it so close as to leave as to exclude the air as much as possible, with

New York, a place famous for its superb his ter. Great care should be taken to get the purest sait and sugar. That known through the country as the 'ground alum' is the beautiful